We have taken a few more steps forward in supporting the RCN over the last few weeks. This morning, we saw HMCS Vancouver return from her Docking Work Period (DWP) at Esquimalt Graving Dock, with custody transferred back to the navy. FMFCB now has its work cut out as we must complete a significant amount of maintenance in order for VAN to be ready to sail in June 2021. We also undocked HMCS Regina today, and have a lot of work to finish over the next week or so in order to return her to sea. And, finally, thanks to all those who continue to work nearly around the clock in HMCS Victoria – you've managed to keep to an ambitious, though necessary, schedule, despite a few setbacks along the way. And, of course, we have all been tracking the news of the increasing rate of COVID transmission on the island, if not specifically in the Victoria area. We can, and should, all do our part to keep following public health measures, perhaps, a bit more strictly, to keep us safe on our island – and to make the upcoming holiday season as enjoyable as possible!
